

An Invitation

from the Concertmaster

I invite you to become part of a special community of friends who share their love of our orchestra. You will have the opportunity to meet musicians, guest artists and other concert goers, so if you are a keen advocate of Queensland Symphony Orchestra and want to support and celebrate our activities and achievements then please consider becoming a member of QSO Friends or purchase a gift membership for someone special. If you are a past member of the orchestra, we would love to re-connect with you and offer you complimentary membership of QSO Friends. Thank you for your support and friendship.

Warwick Adeney, Concertmaster
Queensland Symphony Orchestra

Membership benefits include:

- Opportunities to enjoy the company of QSO musicians, and other music lovers, in a social environment at pre-concert or post-concert functions
- Invitations to QSO Friends exclusive Open Rehearsals to watch the musicians prepare for performances
- Retail, dining and entertainment discounts
- Regular invitations and updates including the QSO newsletter Bravo!

“Being a member of QSO Friends has given us the opportunity to meet new people who share our passion for music. We’ve also learnt more about the music and performance from the conductor and musicians. It’s good to ‘spot’ the musicians we’ve been talking to as they play in the orchestra and this has increased our enjoyment of the concerts.”
